

Toto Cutugno

Toto was responsible for Italy's second victory when the Contest took place in 1990 in Zagreb, in what was then Yugoslavia.

His song, Insieme: 1992 (both written and composed by Toto), spoke of the bringing together of nations; the date in the title refers to the year in which the European Union was due to begin operating.

Lyrics of Insieme: 1992

Together, unite, unite, Europe
With you, so far away and different
With you, friend I thought was lost
You and I, under the same dream
Together, unite, unite, Europe
And for you, woman without borders
For you, under the same banners
You and I, under the same sky
Together, unite, unite, Europe
More and more free we
It is no longer a dream and you are no longer alone
Up and up we
Give me a hand we'll take flight
Europe is not far away
There is an Italian song for you
Together, unite, unite, Europe
For us, a thousand violins in the sky
For us, loves without borders
You and I, under the same ideals
Together, unite, unite, Europe
More and more free we
It is no longer a dream and we are no longer alone
More and more united us
Give me a hand and you'll see that you fly

Europe is not far away
There is an Italian song for you
Together, unite, unite, Europe
More and more free we (More and more free)
Our stars one flag
We are always stronger (Always stronger)
Give me a hand and you'll see it flies
Europe is not far away
There is an Italian song for you
Together, unite, unite, Europe
Europe is not far away
There is an Italian song for you
Together, unite, unite
Europe
